

RAJA LAUT

Private Charter: Langkawi - Phuket

From Langkawi, Malaysia, you will embark upon a journey to the islands of Phang Nga Bay, Thailand, a magical region of sensual pleasure, with a breathtaking geography of hundreds of steep limestone islands rising vertically from crystal seas, creating a maritime playground like no other. Having captured the hearts of film makers, writers and romantics for decades Phang Nga Bay has it all – breathtaking islands, palm fringed beaches, hidden lagoons, underwater adventures, waterfalls, elephant treks, beach parties, and fine dining. With Raja Laut each day typically includes swimming, snorkeling, kayaking, beach-combing, and scuba for the diving enthusiasts. On longer passages lie back, sunbathe and enjoy the amazing scenery. The weather between December and April is characteristically dry, with clear blue skies, and refreshing sea breezes.

Sample Itinerary

Please note that this is only a sample itinerary and it can be adjusted and adapted according to your preferences.

Day 1

Langkawi - Butang Islands

Embarkation in Telaga Harbour Marina and set sail north around Langkawi's beautiful coastline for a short passage to the Butang Islands. Upon arrival, settle into your new surroundings; snorkel, swim, and enjoy the serene islands

Day 2

Butang Group

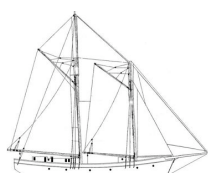

The Butang islands is the southern-most group of islands on Thailand's west coast. Part of the Koh Tarutao National Park, they are wild and largely uninhabited and offers some of the best diving in the Andaman region, as well as secluded beaches and coves that are great for exploring by kayak. On Koh Lipee there is a stunning anchorage and from there one can visit a small sea gypsy settlement

Day 3

Koh Rok

Discover the crystal clear waters of Koh Rok. There is great snorkelling and diving around the islands, and a several miles west-southwest, is a pinnacle rising out of 70 metres depth providing a spectacular dive site

Day 4

Krabi

Krabi province, here is a beautiful anchorage with breathtaking limestone formations, and exquisite beaches. Prior arrangements can be made for trekking on elephant-back through the lush hills of the Krabi national park.

Day 5

Koh Hong

Koh Hong group. There is a 'hong' (Thai from 'room') that can be entered by kayak: this is a beautiful, enclosed pool with a large chimney opening to the sky. Many of these islands have fringing coral reefs rich in colour and marine life. Larger fish such as Spanish Mackerel, Jackfish, Rainbow Runners and Barracuda readily go for trolling lines in these waters.

Day 6

Koh Racha

Koh Racha islands, with white sand beaches and seas that are a vivid aquamarine tending to turquoise, certainly have some of Phang Nga Bay's clearest waters and top dive sites making this an excellent place to experience the beauty of the underwater world.

Day 7

Phuket

Disembarkation in Chalong Bay, Phuket, and transfer to airport for return flight home.
